

Auro Rose Foundation

Manifesting a New Creation

inspired by Sri Aurobindo and Mother

(draft April 2010)

It is spirit, who builds the body.
Es ist der Geist, der sich den Körper baut.
Friedrich Schiller ("Wallenstein"), Inscription on Harvard Art Museum

Mission Statement

The AURO ROSE FOUNDATION is dedicated to promote and to foster an integral approach to the present evolutionary situation of humanity. Underlying is the work and the vision of the philosopher and Yogi Sri Aurobindo and his collaborator Mira Alfassa, The Mother. At the core of this view is the integration of all parts of our personality resp. of our culture into the soul center, the Psychic Being. Out of that follows a new personal, social and cultural acting in the world..

Aims and Objectives

The AURO ROSE FOUNDATION aims to -

1. Support lifestyles, which express an evolutionary and integral understanding of body, soul, consciousness and human relationship with nature. Regarding the latter it wants to support subjective research in communicating with the elements of nature, especially with flowers, water and weather.
2. Foster the goal of human unity through a new personal and collective view on the evolution of our national identity and the souls of nations.
3. Support and promote spiritual-therapeutic techniques, which integrate subtle body energies and the awareness of the cells.

Means and Tools for Realization

The AURO ROSE FOUNDATION wants to achieve the promotion and realization of its aims through -

1. The founding of a living model community or model communities, which are dedicated to the aims of the foundation. It aims also to support the international Auroville township in India, which partly is a model of such a community.
2. Publications, Media, Conferences, Presentations, Workshops and Collective Meditations.
3. Supporting art projects and scientific research activities.
4. Creating an international umbrella network for teaching and promoting the Hladina Method.
